Committee, James Acet Award for Outstanding Achievement in Construction Law Legal Writing, 2010.

Experience

Over 45 years of construction law experience, involved in all aspects of construction law on a state and national level, representing the full spectrum of the construction industry, from owners, contractors, subcontractors and sureties. Practice includes time-related claims and litigation (e.g., delay/impact), legal advice and counsel regarding the contracting process (e.g., bidding and contract disputes/performance bond claims), payment enforcement/defense (e.g. payment bonds/mechanics liens/stop payment notices), administrative and scope claims and litigation (e.g., differing site conditions, change and extra work orders/inadequate plans and specifications and subcontractor substitutions) and counseling and transactional services to the construction industry (e.g., general advice and counsel, including contract preparation, evaluation and negotiation). In addition, extensive experience in dispute resolution including litigation, trial, appeals, arbitration and mediation. Pride in being a hard-working “straight shooter.” Early in career, became a pioneer in construction law, being one of the first women attorneys to practice in the primarily male-dominated field. Through passion and unique intelligence, established a vital, nationwide practice involved in all aspects of construction law and a career marked by increasingly prominent leadership positions. Recognized as an innovator in legal problem-solving and as a thought leader who is a frequently published author and sought-after speaker for professional legal, construction and educational publications and organizations. Love humor and thinks everyone is way too serious. Using all of the above to focus on serving as a neutral (arbitration, judicial reference, and mediation).

Alternative Dispute Resolution Experience

Volunteer Arbitrator for Los Angeles County Superior Court, 2005-2010
Attended week-long mediation training at Pepperdine School of Law, Straus Institute of Dispute Resolution, October 2022. Conducted, as sole arbitrator, construction matter between project owner and design professional. Appointed sole arbitrator and panel member arbitrator on numerous construction-related arbitrations in various stages leading up to arbitration hearings. Conducted full day mediations involving indemnity action by surety against bond principal and individual indemnitors and hospital against elevator company regarding elevator maintenance and payment dispute.
