Work History

Shareholder, Babcock Scott & Babcock (formerly Walstad & Babcock P.C.), 1984-present; Partner, Walstad, Kasimer, Tansey & Ittig, 1982-1984; Attorney, McMurray, McIntosh, Butler & Nielson, 1979-1982.

Experience

A Martindale-Hubbell A-V rated attorney with over 45 years of construction law experience representing parties exclusively from the construction industry including owners, general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, design professionals, sureties, and insurance companies. Experience in both public and private projects ranging in value to over $100 million, including high-rise condos and office buildings, shopping centers, industrial and manufacturing plants, natural gas pipelines, underground utilities, schools, power plants, water treatment plants, fertilizer plants, resort condominiums, apartment complexes, hotels, highways, dams and large excavations, courthouses, data centers, and government installations. Disputes involve interpretation of plans and specifications, bidding issues, construction and design defect matters, change orders, differing site conditions, terminations, delay, disruption, acceleration and payment and performance bond claims. Substantial experience as litigator in arbitrations as well as serving as an arbitrator in arbitration proceedings. Early in my career worked for a national law firm. Practice focuses on disputes in the Intermountain West and to some extent in the Western States. Recipient of the following awards: Outstanding Service to the Utah Construction Industry Award, Associated Builders and Contractors, Utah Chapter, 1994; Service to the Industry Award, Associated General Contractors, Utah Chapter, 1989.
